THE TONE '57

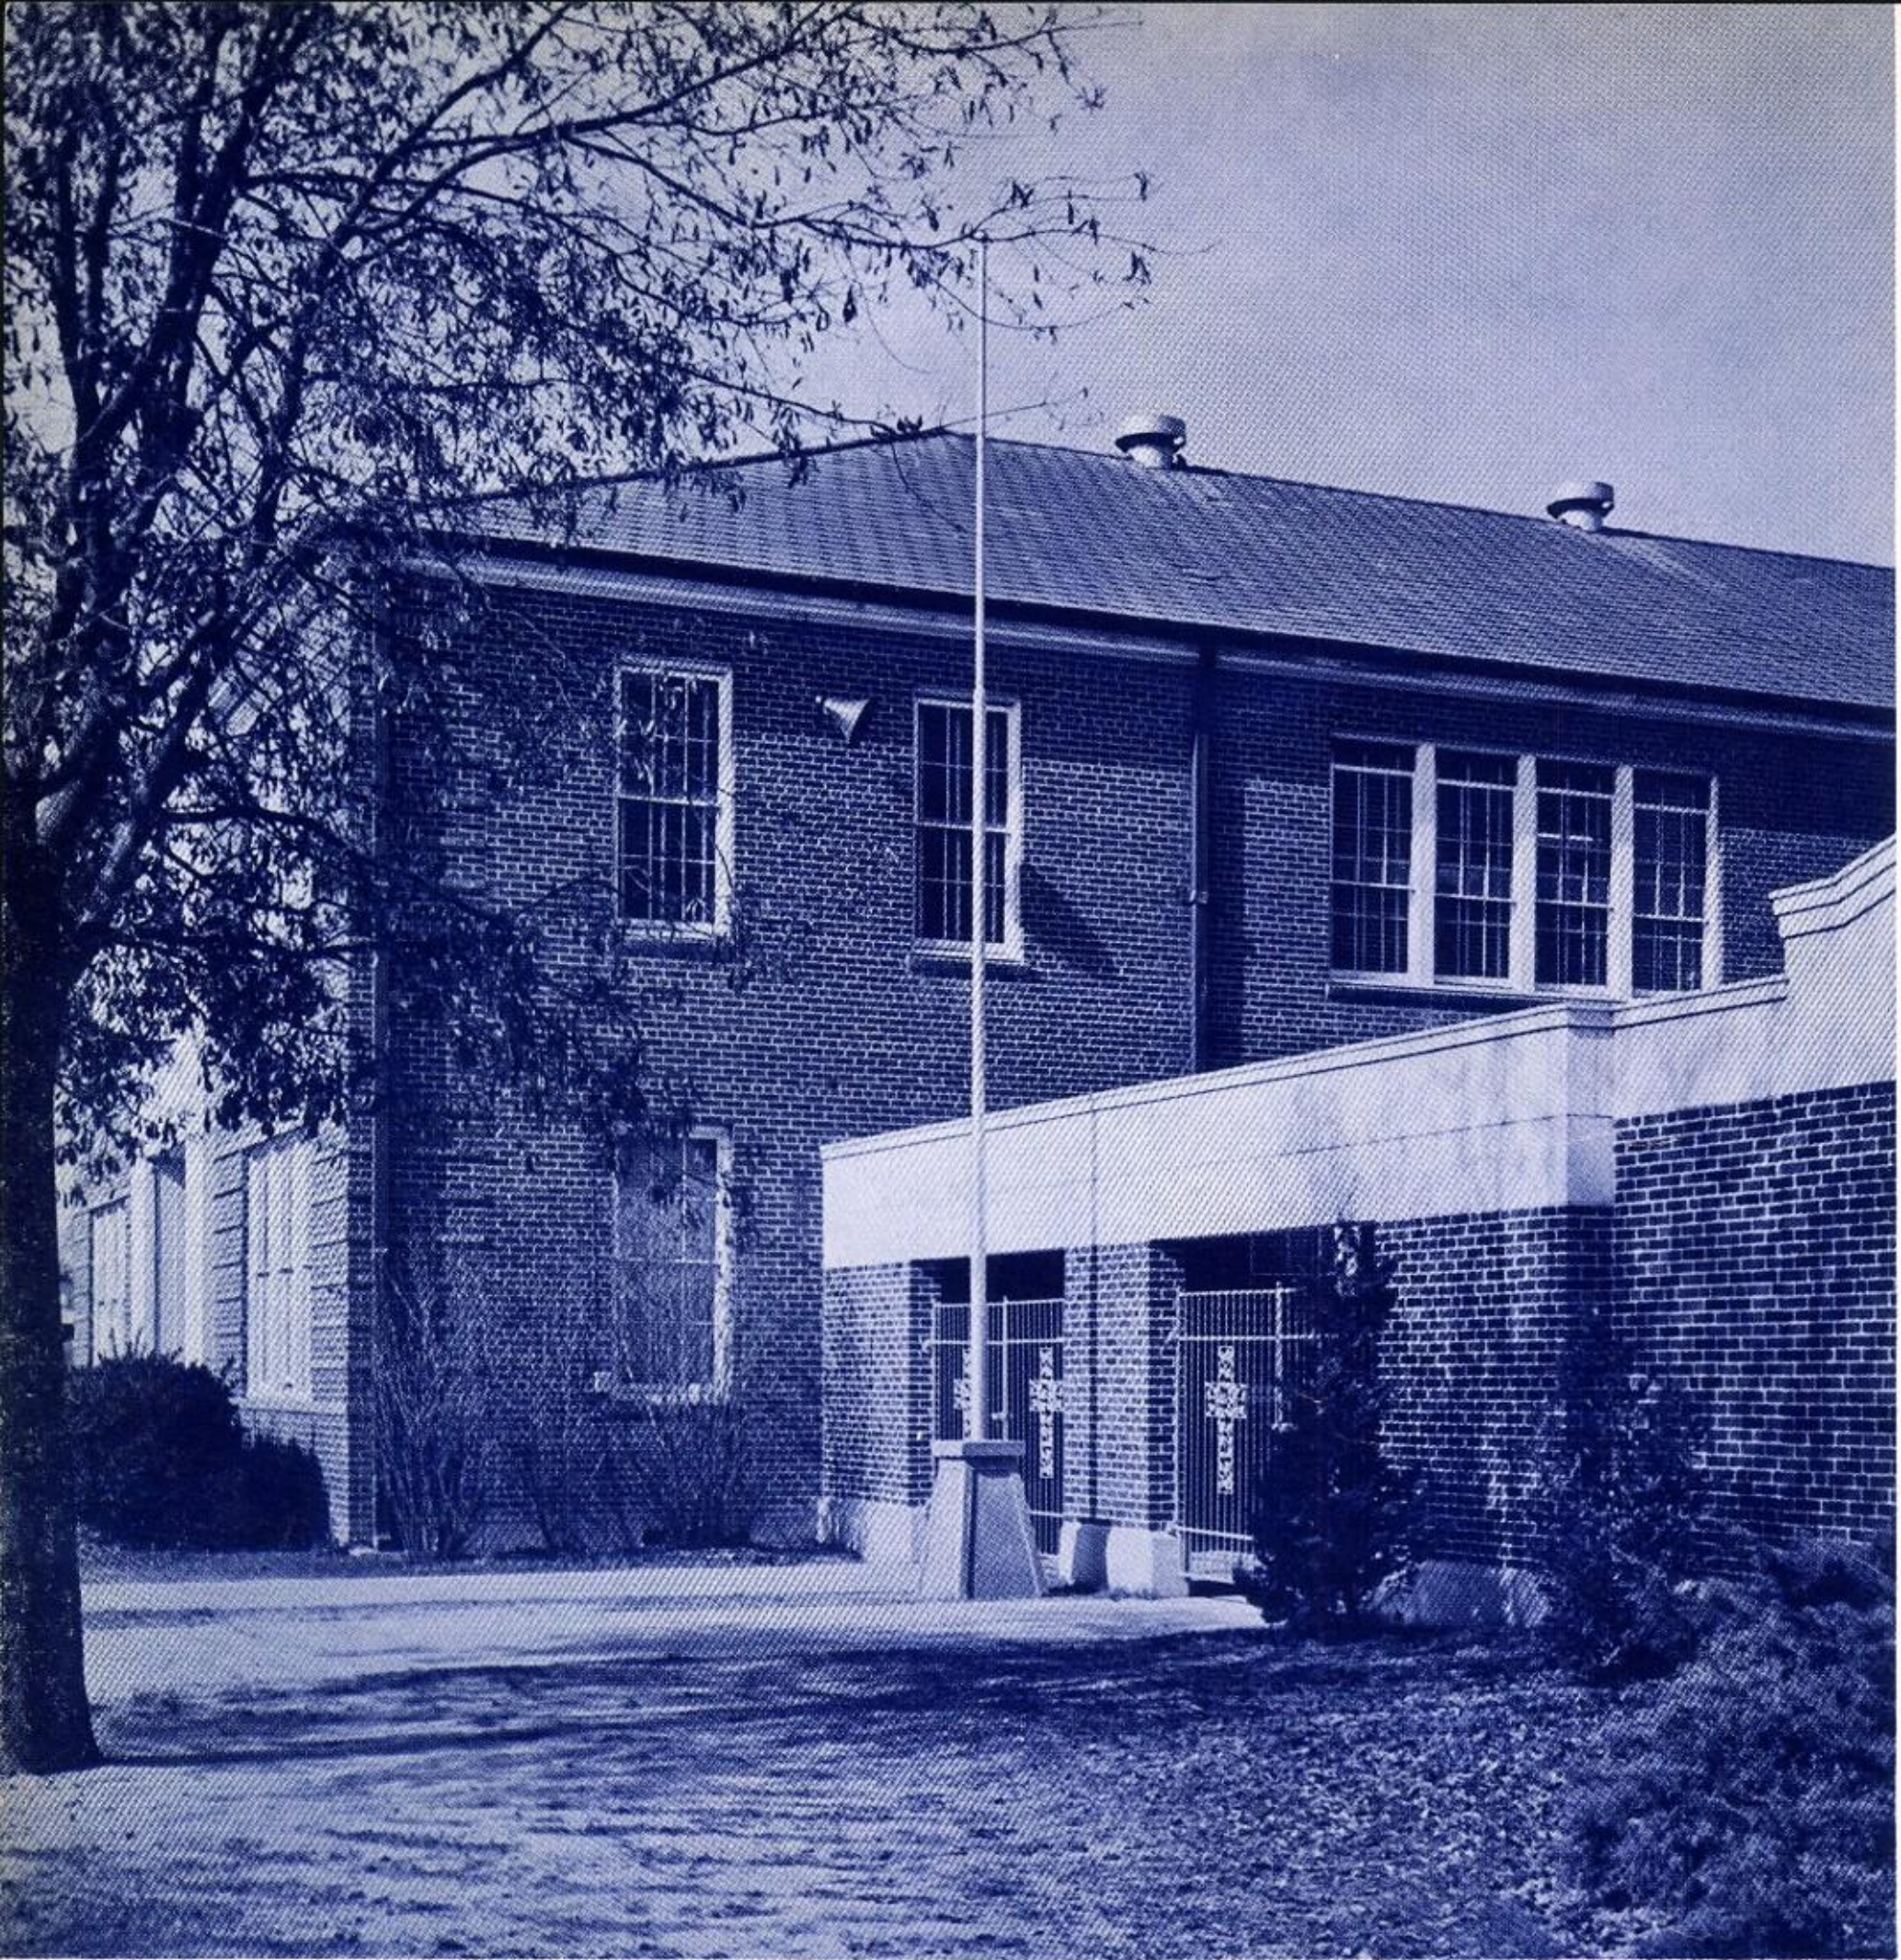

Hail to St. Anthony!

The fairest flower of the South with a spirit surpassing any other

no wonder we're so proud

You have taught us to be kind and gentle _____ to walk the paths of true nobility

So, with one chorus grand, let's sing _____

All hail to St. Anthony

Jesus, Meek and Humble of Heart

Dear Lord, take up Thy abode with us, so that we may live in Thy love and in Thy presence.

Dedication

HE has taught us to envision all things in relation to HIM, to make all our actions a "symphony of purity, goodness and charity." Therefore to HIM, the Master Teacher, Who would have us learn that the wound of His SACRED HEART is the source of grace and life everlasting, we humbly and gratefully dedicate this 1957 TONE.

Principal's Message

Dear Graduates,

It is with real satisfaction that I pen this message to you now as you prepare to launch out into a new field of endeavor. For I feel confident that your Catholic education, which has been especially designed to equip you in every way for the next steps in life, is adequate to help you live that life to the fullest. Treasure it; it is a precious heritage that no one can ever take from you.

The ensuing years will find each of you in some path of your choosing. For many of you, that choice will consist in carrying on the Christ-like work of leading a little family through the sweet and bitter, that life has to offer, on to an eternity of happiness with God. Some of you may choose a service career as a nurse, a social worker, a lay missionary, a teacher, or a youth counselor. Still others, the chosen few, may heed the divine call to serve God exclusively in the religious life. No matter what the choice, the path has been marked out for you.

Be faithful to these high ideals that have been constantly held before you during your years at St. Anthony's, and may our dear Lord and your special patron, the Madonna of the Street, accompany you along the way.

Sincerely in Our Lady,
Sister Mary, Principal

Official Catholic Youth Week Prayer

Composed by Judy Zimmer

Judy's prayer won first place in the 1956 Youth Week Contest.

Prayer of Youth

O Lord, I, a modern-day youth, need You. I need You now . . . In the midst of worldly temptations, I need Your quiet strength . . . In the midst of my everyday problems, I need Your Divine reassurance . . . In the midst of impure pleasures, I need Your untainted purity. Lord, help Your youth. Particularly help me on the road of life to choose the right paths and bypass the material goals of a sinful world. Help me, Lord, for as a youth trying to please You and Your Immaculate Mother Mary, I need You.

Amen.

MOTTO

A soul white and pure,
A heart of fire,
A valiant spirit!

OUR LADY OF THE STREET

This is a painter's dream . . .
A woman, a child and a starlit hill.
Etched in a dim blue twilight.
While all the world is still.

Upon her hair the wind is blowing,
Like music that gently swells;
Her hand is turned as if some song
Had left a flight of bells.

She comes this way, this daring hour,
With a longing in her eye . . .
And we who watch and wait and pray
Will hear her passing by.

Above the din of song and laughter,
Above the shuffling of the feet,
We seem to hear the gentle footsteps
Of Our Lady of the Street.

We'll watch her pass our street some night;
She'll come again some day;
When all the birds are gone, she'll come
And lead us on our way.

Some hour when the world is sleeping,
The streets will burst in song . . .
A Lady comes with an Infant,
To right the world from wrong!

Stay, Lady, for the night is calling.
The sorrow in our heart is deep.
Stay, Lady, for the Infant in your arms
Is dreaming in His sleep!
